

Do not stifle the growth of satellite radio. I travel by car frequently and would love to have my satellite radio station give me wheather and traffic without me having to search for a station in the area to give me the information